Discover Winter Wildlife in Hyde Park's Stony Brook Reservation February 6th

Free event hosted by Boston Natural Areas Network and Friends of Stony Brook

BOSTON, MA – January 21, 2010 – Hyde Park has a hidden gem in Stony Brook Reservation that can be enjoyed during a guided walk on Saturday, February 6th. The Friends of Stony Brook and Boston Natural Areas Network will lead a winter wildlife discovery walk through the Reservation's wooded trails, looking for tracks in the mud and snow as well as other evidence of animals that call Stony Brook home.

Meet at 1:00 p.m. at the trailhead/parking area on Enneking Parkway across from Smithfield Road in Hyde Park, near the Connell softball fields. Walkers are encouraged to dress appropriately for the weather, all ages are welcome. For more information about this free walk or other upcoming events hosted by Boston Natural Areas Network, please call 617-542-7696 or visit www.bostonnatural.org.

Boston Natural Areas Network is a non-profit organization dedicated to bringing together local residents, partner organizations, public officials and foundations to preserve, expand and enhance urban open space, including community gardens, greenways and urban wilds. For further information about the organization, becoming a member or the calendar of events, visit www.bostonnatural.org, or call 617-542-7696.
