36th Annual Gardeners' Gathering March 26th

Free event hosted by Boston Natural Areas Network

BOSTON, MA, March 11, 2011 – For 36 years the Gardeners' Gathering has provided an annual forum for fellow gardeners to shrug off the winter chill and celebrate urban gardening here in Boston.

The 36th Annual Gardeners' Gathering offered by Boston Natural Areas Network will take place on Saturday, March 26, 11:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. at the Curry Student Center (Third Floor), Northeastern University, Boston. This exciting free event attracts hundreds of community and residential gardeners and celebrates the successes of gardeners in the City of Boston.

As the city's largest educational forum for community and residential gardeners, the Gardeners' Gathering is an opportunity for people to share ideas and tips, network and learn. The Gardeners' Gathering offers workshops for both vegetable and ornamental gardeners with an emphasis on safe practices for urban gardens. Subjects include School and Educational Gardening, Urban Tree Care, Bee Keeping, Garden Photography, Seed Starting, and much more. The event will also host the 9th Annual Community Garden Awards. With the help of Mayor Thomas M. Menino, individuals, garden groups and non-profit organizations are honored with the Hall of Fame, Rookie Gardener of the Year and Most Valuable Gardener awards. Additionally, awards for Outstanding Service to Boston Gardens will be presented.
