FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Enjoy a Morning Paddle on the Neponset River to the Falls at the Baker Chocolate Factory on August 14th

Part of the summer-long Boston Natural Areas Network Neponset River Greenway Festival

BOSTON, MA – August 1, 2011 – Enjoy a Sunday morning canoe adventure with Boston Natural Areas Network and the MA Department of Conservation & Recreation on Sunday, August 14th at 11:00 a.m. This Neponset River paddle that ventures up to falls found at the base of the Baker Chocolate mills is limited to experienced paddlers who will meet at Milton Landing, off Wharf Street in Milton. Canoes and gear will be provided for this free event.

Reservations are required and anyone interested must call BNAN at 617-542-7696 or visit www.bostonnatural.org. This event is one of more than 31 free events offered as part of BNAN's summer-long Neponset River Greenway Festival through the end of August.

Boston Natural Areas Network is a non-profit organization dedicated to bringing together local residents, partner organizations, public officials and foundations to preserve, expand, and enhance urban open space, including community gardens, greenways, and urban wilds. For more information about the organization, becoming a member or the calendar of events, visit www.bostonnatural.org or call 617-542-7696.
