FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Apple Cider Pressing Harvest Festival at Mission Hill's McLaughlin Playground
Sunday, October 2, from 2:00-4:00 p.m.

BOSTON, MA, September 26, 2011 – Join in the fun of making and sampling freshly pressed apple cider from organic apples picked from the on site historic orchard, live music and nature tours at the McLaughlin Playground in Mission Hill on Sunday, October 2, from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

In addition to the fresh pressed cider, local musicians, the Homestead Family Band will provide live entertainment. There will also be a guided woodlands tour along with a bake sale that will not only benefit the playground, but will provide sweets for everyone attending.

The Apple Cider Festival is sponsored by the McLaughlin Stewards www.missionhillgreen.com, the Boston Natural Areas Network www.bostonnatural.org and the Urban Wilds Council www.bostonnatural.org/urbanwilds.

Boston Natural Areas Network is a non-profit organization dedicated to bringing together local residents, partner organizations, public officials and foundations to preserve, expand and enhance urban open space, including community gardens, greenways and urban wilds. For further information about the organization, becoming a member or the calendar of events, visit www.bostonnatural.org, or call 617-542-7696.
