Hyde Park's Sherrin Woods Urban Wild Hosts Family Nature Education Walk and Volunteer Day

*Join Boston Natural Areas Network Naturalist Karen Chaffee, the Hyde Park Green Team
to learn about and work on this unique property Saturday November 5-- 10:00 a.m. to 12noon*

BOSTON, MA – October 27, 2011 –Join BNAN Stewardship Manager and urban naturalist Karen Chaffee for a hike through Sherrin Woods Urban Wild exploring new trails and the woodland restoration work done by this summer's Hyde Park Green Team. The walk will tour through the woods and highlight ecological and environmental points of interest along the way. Hikers will have an opportunity to finish the woodland restoration project. Gloves and tools will be provided. Please join us in protecting this wonderful urban habitat.

We will meet at 10:00 a.m. at the corner of Austin Street and Sherrin Street in Hyde Park. The walk and work project will last about two hours. This program is sponsored by Southwest Boston Community Development Corporation, Boston Parks and Recreation Department, and Boston Natural Areas network

Please let BNAN you will be joining the walk by calling 617-542-7696 or info@bostonnatural.org.

Boston Natural Areas Network is a non-profit organization dedicated to bringing together local residents, partner organizations, public officials and foundations to preserve, expand, and enhance urban open space, including community gardens, greenways, and urban wilds.
