

Boston Is Growing Gardens
Dorchester Community Gardener Application Form

Name: _____ Date: _____

Address: _____
Street/Apt# City State Zip Code

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Preferred method of contact: Phone Email (Please Circle)

Best time to be reached: 9 am – 2 pm 2pm – 7pm (Please Circle)

Primary or secondary language other than English: _____

1. Nightingale Community Garden, located at 512 Park Street, is receiving an upgrade that will increase its number of plots from 30 to 125, making it the largest community garden in Dorchester. Are you interested in obtaining a plot at Nightingale for the 2011 season?

Yes No

2a. There is a limited number of garden plots available in other Dorchester Community Gardens. Would you prefer to obtain a plot at another Dorchester Community Garden (other than Nightingale) if space is available?

Yes No

2b. If “Yes”, please list your garden preference below. (See map on back.)

3. The community garden can be used as a place to learn and build community. Please check any of the following events that you would like to attend or help to organize:

___ Basic gardening workshop for beginners/advanced beginners: Attend/ Organize (Circle one)

___ Exercise session (e.g. yoga, tai chi, basic stretches): Attend/ Organize

___ Healthy cooking with garden vegetables demonstration: Attend/ Organize

___ Bike and walking tours to local community gardens: Attend/ Organize

___ Watercolor painting workshop: Attend/ Organize

___ Other: We are open to YOUR ideas: _____

*Boston Is Growing Gardens is an initiative of Boston Natural Areas Network. For more information about community gardening opportunities in Dorchester, please contact Grantley Payne at 617-542-7696 x.21 or email grantley@bostonnatural.org. Please mail completed forms to Boston Natural Areas Network, Attn: BIGG, 62 Summer Street, Boston, MA 02110.